My Story

My name is Hayden Burnell, I am 21 years old, and I am from a small town in Ontario, Canada. My story is a long one.

I was born with a debilitating heart condition that affected my right atrium. My first surgery was at 9 days old. When I was 2, I needed a complicated surgery to save my life, which left me in critical condition, and even the doctors telling my parents that they didn't think I would make it. But here I am. This surgery left me with a protein deficiency which affects my growth, my weight, and other aspects of my body. The doctors then told my parents that my life expectancy was 5 years old, but here I am.

In 2008, I needed a pacemaker to control my heartbeat. There was a complication in my surgery, and I just about lost my life, but here I am.

In 2012, I was told by my cardiologist that I need a heart transplant to survive, and I was put on the transplant list the following month.

Christmas Eve 2014, my parents received a phone call which was the scariest day of my life. It was my time to receive the transplant. We packed a bag and headed for the hospital, I was trembling in fear the entire time. I was hooked up to an I.V, and told that due to the weather, the surgery was going to be delayed a day. Christmas. My entire family came to visit me hours later. Brother, aunts, uncles, cousins. While my family was trying to cheer me up, the doctor pulled my parents aside to talk to them. They came back into the room and my Dad said two words: "It's off." They couldn't bring the heart to the hospital due to the blizzard. I froze there. I got to go home. And because of that, I think is the reason I am here today. Everything happens for a reason.

Fast forward to 2018, my senior year of high school. I didn't know what I wanted to do with my life. I felt like I didn't fit in anywhere. I started a Television Broadcasting college course, dropped out. I completed an office administration course, didn't like it. I took a year off to work, I didn't like it. It wasn't until this year, 2020, that I found my passion. I found my calling, and that is design and coding. I started an Interactive Media Design program in London, Ontario and I have loved each and every second of it. I felt like I finally belonged somewhere.

My Awesome Icon Marketplace

HOME    ABOUT    PRODUCTS    CONTACT

After the 2019/20 NHL season was cut short, hockey is back! The league came up with an interesting playoff format to close out last season, where we saw the Tampa Bay Lightning hoist the Stanley Cup! With the brand new year, a brand new season has started up with brand new divisions! Check out these custom hockey icons!

My Pup

This is Max. He is my best friend, and he is always there to cheer me up when times are tough. Max is now 12 years old, he is a cocker spaniel poodle mix, and as you can tell, very fluffy! He has a daily schedule.....My grandfather walks him 4 times a day! Very spoiled.

Whenever I visit home, I take him downstairs and play hockey with him. He helps me improve my puck handling, and he plays really good defense!

Music and Movies

I am one of those people who prefers movie versions of songs better than the originals! And since I am very passionate about both of these, I thought that I would share a list of my top 3 movies and the songs that accompany them:

#3: Yesterday

Yesterday starring Himesh Patel and Emily James is a movie that focuses around the most popular band of all time, the Beatles. In this movie Jack (Patel) is the one person in the world who remembers the Beatles, so he rewrites their songs and becomes world famous. Very unpopular opinion, but I like the movie versions of the songs more than the Originals by the Beatles! My favourite songs include- Hey Jude, I Saw Her Standing There, Here Comes the Sun, and Back in the U.S.S.R!

#2: Rocketman

European actor Taron Egerton stars as Elton John in this incredible biopic movie. The movie goes through Elton John's struggles as a child, teenager, and adult until he gets his fame and glory. It really captures how being famous isn't all rainbows and unicorns, as Elton John struggled with abusive relationships, homophobes, alcoholism, and drug use. Like my 3rd favourite movie, I also enjoy the movie music more than the originals! Among my favourites are- Bennie and the Jets, Goodbye Yellow Brick Rode, Saturday Night, and of course, Rocketman!

#1- Bohemian Rhapsody

My all-time favourite movie, and my all-time favourite band., and all-time favourite song. Rami Malek portrays the legendary late Freddie Mercury in this biopic drama. The movie follows Freddie's struggles with his appearance, upbringing, sexuality, and problems while being the biggest name in the world. Queen's song Bohemian Rhapsody was originally despised for reason such as that it was over 6 minutes, and there is an operatic section. Today, it is viewed as one of the best if not the best song of all time, which I think it is. The casting for this movie was exquisite, and Malek even won an Oscar on his first nomination for his portrayal of Mercury. Highly recommended!
